Democrats Looking Out for a Presidential Candidate.

CHICAGO, Nov 18.—The Post's Washington special says that a caucus of leading Democrats from all parts of the country was held at Washington on Sunday, to take into consideration the most available Presidential candidate. After discussing Pendleton, Seymour, General Sherman and others, all recognized the necessity of waiting upon a military man. The choice finally settled upon General Hancock. A statement was made that Gen. Grant was sounded, but said he would not accept the Democratic nomination under any circumstances.

U. S. STEAM SLOOP "OSSIPEE,"
AT FORT SIMPSON, LAT. 54, 40, or thereabouts
SATURDAY, October 12, 1867.

Saturday, Oct. 5th, by 11 o'clock, in a drizzling rain storm which had continued from the day before we steamed out of that gem of a harbor, Esquimalt, on by Victoria, and turned into Haro Straits. The magnificence of the scenery, ever changing, but not greatly varied, majestic mountains rising out of the deep waters till their tops, silvered with snow and ice, merged into circling clouds, rocks half hidden by multi colored mosses, abundant foliage gaudily tinted by the frosts, the winding passage among islets, kept the most of us on deck, regardless of rain, until our first anchorage was reached about dark, near the little settlement of Active Pass, 45 miles from Victoria. All the next day we were steaming through the Gulf of Georgia. We passed close by Nanaimo, the Newcastle of this region, but saw nothing of the steamer John L. Stephens, which had stopped there for coal and was reported as having grounded in leaving the harbor. This was a clear, mild, beautiful Sunday. The service was read on deck, and the day passed quietly and harmoniously. The grandeur of the scenery with its solemn stillness added to the reverent observance of the day. At night while the mountain tops were still aglow with sunlight, we anchored close under the land and the shadows of lofty pines, in a little harbor or bight, called Duncan's Bay, in Vancouver's Island, 100 miles from our stopping place of the night before.

A GAMING EXPEDITION.

The following morning, 7th inst., our departure was delayed on account of the strong flood tide setting in against us through Seymour's Narrows, so at daylight there was a general rush for the untented shore—passengers, officers and sailors bearing every description of arm from a marine's musket to the old style of boarding pistol. In an almost incredible short space of time and almost simultaneously, up and down the beach, in the woods, and half way up the mountains, all hands were blazing away. "Deer sign" was abundant, flocks of wild geese and ducks rested on the waters, the shores swarmed with plover, snipe and other birds. Brisk firing was kept up all along this skirmish line for an hour or two, and when a howitzer was fired from the ship and the cornet hoisted recalling all boats, the game returned consisted of two ducks and one squirrel. It was wonderfully fortunate that none of the party were injured by the random firing. Advantage is taken of these stoppages to get a supply of wood for ship's use, and as soon as the anchor was down all fish lines were in requisition and the returns from them were abundant; not only good edible fish were taken, but many curiosities, which are preserved for the Smithsonian Institution.

IN THE NARROWS—FOUL WEATHER.

At 10 o'clock the tide was nearly full, and the Pilot ready to make the trial of the narrows, the Scylla and Charybdis of the inside passage, the Diana requiring repairs to her boiler was taken in tow. Meanwhile, and for an agreeable change many from the Ossipee had transferred themselves to the roomy saloon of the yacht, and for the enjoyment of the unrestricted good cheer of Captain Wright's mess. We started a little too early, the eddying waters were still madly rushing through the narrows on which the ship and yacht were whirled and twisted about as if they were toys of cork, and against which they scarcely made perceptible headway. About two hours were spent in getting through the successive whirlpools and rapids, and then the way became more smooth, though more winding and through the narrow channels of Discovery and Johnston's Straits. Rain set in toward evening, but spite of it and the darkness the Pilot kept on until near 10 o'clock, when Albert Bay was selected for an anchorage—an indentation in Cormorant Island, 88 miles from Duncan's, which we left that morning.

THE NATIVES.

Next morning, rain, wind and fog continuing, it was deemed unsafe to proceed, as a sudden flow of wind through the gorges might drive the ship ashore. Through the day and till late in the night, canoe loads of Indians kept arriving from the neighboring villages, some with a few salmon, others with coarse meats or venison to traffic, but most to beg or impelled by curiosity. The carcass of a large deer, just slain, was sold for a dollar. A small piece of tobacco would purchase a fine salmon or duck. "Whiskee," "tobac" and "quarter," comprised the extent of their English, and these words they were constantly shouting, mixed in with their gibberish, which all were jabbering together. Dirty, ragged, paint-besmeared, stultified, impoverished wretches—what a contrast between the real natives and "the noble red man of the forest" we read of in fiction. These Indians exhibit no specimens of mechanism but of the rudest order—no carving, beadwork, baskets, or toys. Their canoes, dug out of logs, are clumsy, ungainly things, destitute of ornament, no unnecessary labor or adornment is expended even on their paddles. Their "lodges," which one would fancy must be interesting or picturesque, would hardly be accepted as a lodging place by a well-conditioned dog. No flat heads were observed here, we had passed their latitude, but the standard of female beauty is the sugar loaf, produced by wrapping bandages tightly about the head in infancy. The hight of squawish loveliness is about 21 inches from chin to apex of cranium. The heads of the females only are distorted in this way, or flattened according to the fashion down the coast. On the point just opposite our anchorage, was the burial place of the tribe inhabiting this region. Though it was raining furiously, a large party rubber-clad themselves and started for an exploration.

AN INDIAN MAUSOLEUM OR WIGWAM.

The principal object of attraction was the mausoleum or wigwam of a popular chief, who died some four years since. It was constructed of logs and roofed in with slabs hewn from trees, and over roof and sides were nailed the blankets of the departed chief, which were now dropping in pieces, mouldy and worm eaten. Through crevices could be seen upon a trestle, the rude box about 2½ feet by 3, in which the body was deposited, doubled on the closely folded limbs. On the ground were other boxes containing articles used by him in life, clothing, cooking utensils, hunting and fishing apparatus. The trees had been cut down about the place, but quite a thicket of reeds, briars and under brush had grown up. In the rear one tree had been left, from which the limbs had been cut away, leaving a rude flagstaff to which the remnant of a [illegible] flag or pennant still adhered, lower down was nailed a board to which had been fastened his "crest," and below that another on which was inscribed some rude hieroglyphics. Fronting the wigwam, driven into the ground and about 8 feet apart were slabs roughly hewn into a shape to resemble the human form, on the head were blazed spots to represent eyes, nose and mouth, and a piece of blanket was [illegible] the shoulders—evidently with a [illegible] to [illegible] as guardians of the dead. Posts were driven down and continued in line for several rods in either direction from the sentinels. Eleven canoes of different sizes, drawn up into line were rotting near.

ROYAL REMAINS.

In the vicinity was a less portentous wigwam containing members of the late Chief's family; mouldering near each one were the worldly effects they had left. Some years since small pox prevailed very badly among this tribe. The mortality was very great. Where the victims died their bodies remained for a year or over, then they were burned, and the ashes collected in boxes, and those fastened up in tops of trees. We saw several of these covered over with a piece of blanket and securely lashed to the limbs. "Jack" mistook them for bird cages, or traps of some kind!

UNDER WAY—FORT RUPERT.

Wednesday morning, 9th inst., broke dry and clear, and we were soon on our course again, the Diana running ahead, made a visit to Fort Rupert, a post of the Hudson Bay Company, obtaining some supplies and news that the Stephens passed along two days ahead of us, and had taken the outside passage, from the head of Vancouver Island. Instead of following seaward, we turned from that point through an intricate channel to the eastward, among rocks and many very pretty little islands. On Hope Island was another of the Company's posts, surrounded by the best and most prosperous appearing Indian village we had yet seen. Emerging a few miles further on from Queen Charlotte Sound, there extended before us thirty-five miles open sea to the next island shelter. The passage was pretty rough, though with a strong southerly wind it was made in about four hours, but in that time some were brought by sea sickness to their former level. Rounding the point of Calvert Island, eighty miles from our starting place of the morning, our anchor was let go in Safety Cove.

BEAUTIFUL SCENERY—CARTER'S BAY.

Surfeited as we had been with scenery magnificent and gorgeous, the beauty of this spot excited lively expressions from every beholder. A cul de sac about 400 yards wide at the entrance and 1,000 deep, lofty and precipitous mountains, completely enclosing its sides, down which noisy cascades descended, the bay, filled with fine fish, geese and ducks, resting upon its surface, the thick woods, abounding with game. Never, I do believe, was seen so beautiful a wild.

Thursday morning, 10th, we were again under way, bright and early. It was the pilot's intention to keep on all night, but rain soon set in, with fog, and continued all day, so after running eighty miles we came to in Carter's Bay, over against Princess Royal Island and right under the steep rocks. The Diana let go her anchor in nine fathoms, but swinging around found only nine feet of water. The night was quite tempestuous. There was one gorge through which the "woolies" would come swooping down straining our cables and lashing the little bay into foam. The next day, on our course, the panorama on either hand, between the sheltering islands and main land, surpassed all our sublime and gorgeous prospects. We were passing through the regions of mists, and rainbows and waterfalls. Starting amid the mountain peaks, elevated from 1,500 to 2,000 feet, hundreds of little silvery, ribbon like rivulets go winding down through the rocks, mosses and trees, a little lower down from rock encased reservoirs quite large streams would rush forth foaming, take a Niagara like leap, then, roaring over lesser falls, plunge seething into the tide. Not by dozens or scores could these cascades be enumerated, but by hundreds. Should an artist depict one of the wonderful views present in Finlason Strait and Grenville Sound it might be advisable to attach the affidavits of several respectable witnesses to their identity and accuracy, lest he be reputed a crazy inventor of impossible scenery. The intricate channel compelled us to anchor again at night, after running eighty miles—the daylight is rapidly shortening.

FORT SIMPSON.

Taking the earliest possible start, with 70 miles to go, we arrived at Fort Simpson, our present anchorage, this Saturday, 12th instant, in the afternoon, having run about 600 miles in the inside passage. Here it had to be decided, before continuing "on to Sitka," whether to shape a course direct and plunge out to sea, which looks so chill and threatening under the leaden skies, or continue this safe and charming river like route, under the lee of Prince of Wales and other islands for about 250 miles, which would leave only 70 miles of our course unsheltered, around the peninsula to our harbor of destination. The persuasions of the victims of sea sickness have prevailed—the officers on board the Diana relinquishing their claim upon Capt. Tom Coffin, who will continue on board and conduct us through the remainder of the inside passage, which we resume to-morrow morning. A day or two will suffice for the transaction of the business which brought the Diana here, after which she returns to Victoria, taking our mail, and without other aid than Captain Wright, who'll never go wrong, no matter "what comes."

Over this place, Fort Simpson, flies the British red ensign, bearing the capitals, H. B. C., the monogram of the Hudson's Bay Company, that consummate monopoly which with [illegible] little sway ruled a territory equal in extent to the United States. The charter expired in 1861, but [illegible] posts do not [illegible] to be diminished in number, nor their perquisites or authority [illegible]. The Daily Oregonian.

THURSDAY MORNING, NOV. 21, 1867.

Is it a Failure?

The Roseburg Ensign saw fit lately to turn a square corner in regard to the reconstruction policy of Congress. That paper some months ago was particularly delighted with the idea of impartial suffrage at the South, and even went to the extent of favoring its adoption at the North as a matter of justice, propriety, and right. As we said on a former occasion, no other Republican paper in Oregon took so advanced a position in reference to this question as did the Ensign. But that paper now thinks fit to swing to the other extreme. Not satisfied with declaring against negro suffrage here,—a measure which nobody ever [illegible] for, the Ensign now also opposes impartial suffrage at the South and thinks "the negro voting experiment a ridiculous failure." Some weeks ago we spoke of its inconsistency on this subject, and [illegible] our inability to understand why a paper which at first had fully sanctioned the measure should now condemn it, and this at the very time when its results were being manifested in the overthrow of the rebel element of the South and the preparation of the [illegible] States for a return to their old places in the Union with rebellion suppressed and loyalty triumphant. Our remarks on this subject the Ensign [illegible] to understand as an attempt to "read it out of the party." We attempt nothing of the kind. But we repeat what we said before, that if that paper wishes to take sides with the Democratic party on this question it has a perfect right to do so, but it has no right to set up to be a Union or Republican paper and at the same time oppose and insist on the abandonment of the policy which that party has adopted for the restoration of the rebel States. Last year the experiment of [illegible] was tried without negro [illegible] with what result the editor of the Ensign [illegible]. Congress hesitated long before giving the [illegible] suffrage, and only did it [illegible] it was [illegible] there was no other way to put [illegible]. The results of negro suffrage [illegible] trial. The ex-States are [illegible] rapidly [illegible] the work of reorganization. [illegible] so far has been highly successful and [illegible] are attributable [illegible]. The [illegible] hope of [illegible] out of power [illegible] to this [illegible]. Since [illegible] are the [illegible] strange enough that any Republican paper should [illegible] to be [illegible] with the [illegible] and call it a "failure." And this is [illegible] that the [illegible] this [illegible]. Scarcely supposed [illegible] when it was first enacted. We [illegible] the Ensign, or any one who [illegible] to act with the Union party; but "we [illegible] this much to be self-evident," that no one can act with that party in the great campaign of [illegible] who does not support the measures [illegible] for the restoration of the [illegible]. The [illegible] in 1868 will be "General [illegible] and the [illegible] policy," and we [illegible] the editor of the Ensign and [illegible] man who [illegible] to the [illegible] of the war.

[illegible] for War.

The warlike tone of the Democratic press is at [illegible] one of its [illegible] features. It is [illegible] to pick up a journal published in [illegible] of the party, which does not [illegible] of war, devastation and slaughter. The [illegible] in this place [illegible] and intimates all whom it may [illegible] that the star of [illegible] is about to set in blood. The one published at Umatilla [illegible] with an [illegible] of grim [illegible] that [illegible] every day. The [illegible] of Democratic organs of that party [illegible] talk [illegible] of blood, [illegible] and [illegible] civil war. It is surprising to notice how [illegible] and the Democracy are with [illegible]. The Democratic hero [illegible] of his [illegible] life of [illegible] and [illegible] he is to [illegible] at home, [illegible] calls him to the [illegible]. For [illegible] that last war,—when neither [illegible] is in danger, that he is the [illegible] Honor [illegible]. He publishes it abroad that he is a [illegible] giants. An implacable enemy is [illegible]. Like the Honorable Elijah Pogram, M. C., the representative of his class and [illegible] this free [illegible] the mountains of our [illegible] flowing as our mineral licks; [illegible] as air our [illegible]. Rough he may be. So air our [illegible]. Wild he may be. So air [illegible] a child of Nature and a [illegible], and his boastful answer to the [illegible] and the [illegible] is that his bright home is in the [illegible] sun!"

[illegible] the [illegible] of the [illegible] Democrat [illegible] be no wonder that all his talk is in the [illegible]. Our [illegible] poet tells us that there is [illegible] is nothing so becomes [illegible] stillness and humility. But when the blast of war rings in our ears, we [illegible] with hard favored rage, [illegible] the sinews and summon up the blood. But [illegible] hero reverses all this. While war was raging only a short time ago, he was a [illegible] man. War was the [illegible] of the race. A fratricidal war was [illegible]. No Democrat [illegible] stain his hands with the blood of his [illegible]. The [illegible] then was to turn the [illegible] to the smiter, and to give the cloak also to him who had taken the coat. But now [illegible] prevails, and he, who erewhile was a [illegible] at the altar of peace, now [illegible] for war. They who thought it a piece of [illegible] to fight when war was raging, now hold it to be cowardly not to profess a readiness to fight when profound peace prevails. Captain Bobadil and all his class are always most valiant when there is least danger of actual war.

The American Flag at the Fiji Islands.

[illegible] pages give an account of the visit of the United States war ship Tuscarora to the Fiji Islands in the South Pacific. The group [illegible] one hundred and fifty-four islands, sixty-five of which are inhabited. The population is [illegible] 130,000. The object of the visit of the Tuscarora was to look after American interests there. During the rebellion in our country the natives of the Fiji group were persuaded by unprincipled adventurers who visited them that our Government was broken up and they would never again see an American ship. The consequence was that Americans were treated with much indignity and deprived of their property. As indemnity for these outrages, three islands have been [illegible] to the United States for security for claims adjudged to be due, the chiefs being allowed a considerable time to redeem them. The total amount of the claims adjudged to be due is nearly $50,000, which bears interest at the rate of six per cent. The islands are governed by a king, subject to whom are seven chiefs, each controling a district. Prior to 1853 the natives were cannibals. In that year they renounced this horrible practice, and are said to have now advanced to about that state of civilization which prevailed at the Sandwich Islands thirty years ago. Englishmen from Sydney are locating on the group and purchasing land for grazing purposes. The islands are well adapted to the growth of cotton, and some remarkably fine [illegible] were brought away. On the largest island of the group is a deep river which the officers of the Tuscarora went up in boats for forty miles, and which the ship could have ascended twenty or thirty miles could she have crossed the bar. These islands would be of considerable value either to the United States or Great Britain. It may be that the claims our Government has upon them may result in their coming into our possession, though Capt. Stanley of the Tuscarora thinks the group will virtually belong to Great Britain in a few years. The islands are eight or ten days sail from Sydney, and about the same distance from Tahiti.

STATE ITEMS.

A Convention of the Baptist Church of Oregon will be held at Brownsville, on the 25th of December.

In the coming municipal election at Albany, party lines will be drawn. The Republicans will nominate their ticket on Saturday evening next.

Last week a daughter of Joseph Bromley of Eugene City, aged nine years, went too near a brother splitting wood, and the axe cut her head badly but not dangerously.

The Umatilla paper says several gentlemen in that place formed themselves into an association known as the Umatilla Brass Band. Instruments will be procured immediately.

Owing to severe and protracted illness in his family, Mr. W. A. McPherson has been prevented from starting East, as he contemplated. He hopes to start within the next ten days.

The Roseburg paper says: Captain Brewster has just returned, and informs us that the whole amount of stock for the Coos Bay road, $50,000, is taken. Much more would have been taken had the necessary amount been larger. This shows well for the enterprise of the citizens of Douglas and Coos.

The Unionist remarks with astonishment that nearly all the speakers announced for Democratic meetings have some prefix of distinction. In the civil list there are none of less dignity than a Judge, and in the military line, none below the grade of Colonel. It is inferred that the rebel judiciary and Jubal Early's staff have been engaged for the Oregon campaign.

A gentleman recently from John Day's river informs the Press that the Texas Bar diggings are paying better than ever. The ditches are completed, one from D[illegible] tion Creek, and the other from the North Fork. In one run of ten days Snead's company took out per man an average of $6 58 per day. Companies on the opposite side of the river have taken out about the same. The miners expect to work most of the winter.

Says the Umatilla Press: A correspondent from Sommerville writes under date of Nov. 12th, that Mr. Wm. Hoebner committed suicide by shooting himself with a Sharp's rifle. He evidently, from the position in which he was found, placed the rifle between the logs of his cabin, muzzle to his head and pulled the trigger with his right hand. He had no family, was about fifty, and supposed to be a native of Pennsylvania. Mr. Hoebner was a good citizen and one of the first settlers in Grand Ronde valley. He had for some time shown signs of insanity.

The Eugene Journal says: Some time ago we gave an account of a very rich gold-bearing ledge of quartz discovered by C. H. Moses and Squire Wilber. They have prospected it considerably this fall and taken out quite a quantity of rock, and will be able to work it as soon as [illegible] opens. A few days since they assayed some more of the rock, and found that it paid $2 13½ per pound. The ledge has been opened in two places, one tunnel run in about a [illegible] feet below where they first [illegible], and [illegible] fall as rich quartz as at the top. They will [illegible] with an arastra at first, and as the ledge opens they will make such improvements as are necessary. Some of the selected rock assayed as high as $6,000 per ton.

OLYMPIA, W. T., Nov. 20.—Last evening more than half the circle of seats at Bartholomew's show, crowded with men, women and children, suddenly gave way, causing the greatest confusion. The company plays to-[illegible] night for the benefit of the [illegible].

OUR SAN FRANCISCO DISPATCH.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 20.—G. A. Fuller, R. J. [illegible] and H. S. Sparks were arrested last evening on a charge of selling tickets for a gift enterprise scheme called the San Francisco Art Association. They agreed to plead guilty and were ordered to appear for sentence tomorrow.

A special meeting of the Chamber of Commerce has been called for to-morrow evening for the purpose of discussing the proposed reciprocity treaty with the Hawaiian Islands. The treaty will shortly come up for action in the Senate, as it will gravely affect the prosperity of the Pacific States.

We learn by [illegible] from Behring's Bay that on the 18th inst. the bark Gem of the Ocean struck a rock in Bell [illegible] channel. The captain put the vessel ashore in four [illegible] of water.

[illegible] has [illegible] action against Juan Bairas [illegible] and some three [illegible] to secure a portion of a large tract of land on the shore of San Pablo Bay. The property is valued at $179,380.

Mrs. Mary C. Hyde sues for a divorce from her husband upon [illegible] of intemperance, cruelty and adultery. Mrs. Hyde is said to be Mrs. Cunningham—Burdell, who was so [illegible] the public in [illegible] with the [illegible] of Dr. Burdell in New York, after his murder, which occurred in the house where she [illegible].

A wooden building, corner Sacramento and [illegible] street, was [illegible] last night; loss, $1,000.

A Chinese theater to cost $40,000, is to be built on [illegible].

G. Croft, of this city, was drowned Nov. 5th, off the mouth of the Noyo river. He was on board of the [illegible], when a gale arose and the [illegible], first seamen and the [illegible] started for shore in a small boat for safety, but it was capsized and Croft was drowned.

IN UNION THERE IS STRENGTH.—And as everybody is buying their Clothing of KOHN & FISHEL, No. 91 Front Street, it must be a fact that cannot be denied that they have the Largest Stock of Clothing in the city, and sell it at prices that defy competition. Ladies, too, are becoming convinced that at the ST. LOUIS STORE they find just such goods as they want, and at prices that make them smile when they return to their happy firesides.

Buchtel's Photograph Gallery is the only establishment in Oregon that is thoroughly prepared to do all the different styles of work in the art. [illegible] Judge M. Kelly, of Idaho, with his family, arrived [illegible] day morning by the steamship Sierra Nevada, en route to [illegible]. During his [illegible] the [illegible], and during his stay, we learned that it is his intention to make Idaho his permanent home. He has been [illegible] since last January, having been ordered to Washington by the Attorney General to answer [illegible] preferred against him by Daley to Holbrook and [illegible]. He had no difficulty in [illegible] all [illegible] to the satisfaction of the Attorney General, and, [illegible], he remains as one of the [illegible] Judges of Idaho, [illegible] to the satisfaction of his friends, and equally to the [illegible] of the gang which sought his removal. He will start for Lewiston to-morrow morning and will hold a term of the District Court there, commencing on the last Monday of this month. His family [illegible] to been on this coast. [illegible], the Judge gave us the information that Gov. Ballard was not [illegible] at the time the report of his suspension [illegible] here, nor at any other time. The whole affair had this foundation and nothing more: When the [illegible] the [illegible] of Gibbs and [illegible] the [illegible] was angry and threatened to remove all the Idaho [illegible] or to [illegible] them where he could not [illegible]. In fact, he [illegible] to suspend Gov. [illegible] and appoint Gibbs and gave Mr. Seward directions [illegible] Gov. Ballard of his [illegible], which was done. [illegible] papers authorizing the substitution were [illegible] to him for his signature, he [illegible] and finally referred the Attorney General for an opinion. The [illegible] gave the President a written opinion, that he could not, [illegible] the tenure of office law, even suspend Gov. [illegible] for cause; and there being no [illegible] except the [illegible] at the Senate, the matter was [illegible]. Gov. Ballard has, therefore, continued to exercise the functions of Governor. [illegible] to have been [illegible] all [illegible].

[illegible].—The following [illegible] was disposed of in the Recorder's Court yesterday:

[illegible] vs. Fred. Washington, colored; charged with [illegible] from Hunter, colored; tried, found guilty, and fined 25 and costs.

State vs. [illegible] Lee; charged with larceny by stealing [illegible] to him to be [illegible], by Mary Obershaw; jury trial; verdict of jury, not guilty.

[illegible] Lee; [illegible] of clothing from Mary Weston, continued till to-day.

State vs. [illegible] Jim; selling liquor to Indians; [illegible]

[illegible] Quiltoak; assault with threats to kill [illegible] Mary B[illegible]

[illegible] steam fire engine purchased by the city for [illegible] Fire Co., No. 4, was shipped at New York on board the ship San [illegible], which arrived at San Francisco last Tuesday, as stated by the telegraphic dispatches published yesterday. It is expected that the engine will arrive here by the next steamer, and [illegible] the [illegible] is making preparations for its reception in a manner which will properly testify their joy. There will undoubtedly be a big time among the firemen when the [illegible] of [illegible] their [illegible] takes place.

TROUT.—Capt. Baughman has for some time been telling us "fish stories" about catching trout at the falls of Oregon City, and has several times threatened, if we wouldn't believe him, to bring us string just to show that some things can be done as well as others. Yesterday he carried his threat into execution, presenting us a string of regular beauties, of a large size and a dozen in number. Two or three of them were almost large enough to tow a ferry boat. Pete De Huff says the Captain did catch them and we shall not go and get ourself into a scrape by saying that he bought them of an Indian. [illegible] much. The Captain has our thanks.

THE LADIES' FESTIVAL.—We acknowledge the receipt of a beautiful lunch last evening, from the festival, with the [illegible] of the New England corner." The success of the entertainment, we learn, was eminently satisfactory, both in a social and financial point of view. [illegible] were at 10 o'clock, when we looked in, several hundred visitors present and all seemed to be enjoying the [illegible] highly. There were all sorts of attractions, and if anybody went away without investing in the new [illegible] building, it was certainly not because of any lack of temptations.

CIRCUIT COURT.—Almost the whole of yesterday and the day [illegible] was consumed in the above Court in the trial of the case of Smith & Davis against the California State Telegraph Company. The case was ably and skillfully tried by the attorneys on both sides, there being some new and important questions raised in the case. The argument closed last evening, and the charge to the jury will be given to-day.

BOOKS.—We are indebted to Mr. Chas. Barrett for [illegible] of late eastern publications, including Ballou's Magazine, Godey for November, New York Herald, New York Clipper and all the leading pictorials. Everything in this line can be found at Barrett's—fresh and new.

[illegible].—This genial book and almanac man arrived home by the Sierra Nevada, bringing with him a [illegible] lot of western newspapers, magazines and pictorials, of which we acknowledge the receipt of a liberal [illegible].

GONE EAST.—We understand that Maj. Tilton will start by the next steamer for the East to report upon his [illegible] and observations on the route of the Northern Pacific Railroad.

HOT LUNCH.—The ladies in charge of the Festival given last evening, will serve hot lunch at Oro Fino Hall to-day, from 12 M. to 2 P. M.

TO SAIL.—The Sierra Nevada will sail hence for San Francisco on Saturday, the 23d, at 3 o'clock, P. M.

WILLAMETTE PRODUCE.—Arrived per steamer Alert, from Oregon City yesterday, 2,281 qr sks flour, 47 sacks timothy grass seed, 302 bags wheat, 2 coops fowls, 297 sks feed, 2 [illegible], 10 gunnies of bacon, 1 bale hides, and 22 boxes fruit.

WOOL.—Our New York correspondent informs us by letter under date October 21st, that the current price of Pacific coast wool, was then 24c to 30c for unwashed and 18c to 23c for common.

THE SIERRA NEVADA'S FREIGHT.—The Sierra Nevada brought six hundred tons assorted merchandise, mostly for Portland wholesale dealers. A small proportion of it goes up the Columbia river.

Just Dawns for being Alive [illegible]. DR. G. W. COOL
Has Returned to Portland, and can be found at his residence on Third St., bet. Alder and Washington.

Those who desire FIRST-CLASS DENTAL SERVICES might do well to give him a call. He is making a NEW AND IMPROVED VULCANITE PLATE, the nature of his improvement consists in lining the entire concave surface with fine gold; it makes the plate twice as strong and one-third times thinner than the common vulcanite plate. It also prevents the acids of the mouth from roughing the plate, and from turning it black, which is a common occurrence. One-half of the common vulcanite plates turn black after being in use a short time, particularly where tobacco is used for smoking. His new style of plate admits of a very fine finish on the concave or palate surface. His office is the only place where such work can be had. The improvement is his own invention, for which he has made application to the United States Patent Office for a patent. He has been making this style of work for the last two-and-a-half years, and has specimens of the work which can be seen at his residence and office on Third street. This work has given satisfaction in every case.

PERRY DAVIS' VEGETABLE PAIN KILLER,
THE UNIVERSAL REMEDY FOR INTERNAL AND EXTERNAL COMPLAINTS!

At this period there are but few of the human race unacquainted with the merits of the Pain Killer; but while some extol it as a liniment, they know but little of its power in [illegible] pain when taken internally, while others use it internally with great success, but are equally ignorant of its healing virtues when applied externally. We therefore wish to say to all that it is equally successful whether used internally or externally, and it stands alone, unrivalled by all the great catalogue of Family Medicines; and its sale is universal and immense. The demand for it from India and other foreign countries is equal to the demand at home, and it has become known in those far off places by its merits.

THE PEOPLE have been so much imposed upon by several worthless Sarsaparillas, that we are glad to be able to recommend a preparation which can be depended on as containing the virtues of that invaluable medicine, and is worthy of the public confidence. DOCT. AYER'S SARSAPARILLA cures when anything can cure the diseases that require an alterative medicine.

HOSTETTER'S
CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS!
A Pure and Powerful Tonic,
Corrective and Alterative, of wonderful efficacy in Diseases of the STOMACH, LIVER AND BOWELS.
PROTECTIVE PROPERTIES.
Prevents Fever and Ague and Bilious [illegible] of Fevers [illegible] the System [illegible] and [illegible] of unwholesome water; invigorates the organs of digestion and the bowels;
Strengthens the Nerves and [illegible] of Life.
REMEDIAL PROPERTIES.
Cures Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Sick and Nervous Headache, General Debility, Nervousness, Depression of Spirits, Constipation, Colic, Intermittent Fevers, Sea Sickness, Cramps and Spasms, and all complaints of either sex arising from Bodily Weakness, whether inherent in the system or PRODUCED BY SPECIAL CAUSES.

NOTHING THAT IS NOT WHOLESOME, GENIAL, and restorative in its nature, enters into the composition of HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. This popular preparation contains no mineral of any kind; no deadly botanical element; no fiery excitant; but is a combination of the extracts of rare balsamic herbs and plants, with the purest and mildest of all diffusive stimulants.

The weak stomach is rapidly invigorated, and the appetite restored by this Tonic, and hence it works wonders in cases of Dyspepsia, and in less confirmed forms of Indigestion. Acting as a gentle and painless aperient, as well as upon the liver, it also invariably relieves the Constipation superinduced by irregular action of the digestive and [illegible] organs.

Persons of feeble habit, liable to Nervous Attacks, Lowness of Spirits, and Fits of Languor, find prompt and permanent relief from the Bitters. The testimony on this point is conclusive, and from both sexes.

As a Genuine Tonic, HOSTETTER'S BITTERS [illegible] which must be experienced or witnessed before they can be fully appreciated. In cases of Constitutional Weakness, Premature Decay, and Debility and Decrepitude arising from old age, it exercises the [illegible] influence. In the convalescent stages of all diseases it operates as a delightful invigorant. When the powers of nature are relaxed, it operates to re-enforce and re-establish them.

Last, but not least, it is the only safe stimulant, being manufactured from sound and innocuous materials, and entirely free from the acrid elements present more or less in all the ordinary tonics and stomachics of the day.

Abraham Lincoln.

A FRENCH TRIBUTE TO HIS MEMORY.

It has already been stated that the poem which received the prize of the French Academy for the current year, was a eulogy upon Abraham Lincoln, by Edouard Grenier. The concluding lines of this remarkable production are as follows:

Thus didst thou die!—But why what irony
Did fate preserve thee from that agony
Of Cæsar, scoffing at a people free?
Upon what sacred rights laidst thou thy hand?
When sought'st thou ever to revenge a blow?
Or when didst thou to glut thine own desire,
B[illegible] the sheltering mask of cause of state,
Seek to oppress the feeble of the land?—
Though dark the future was for liberty
Thou kept the laws, and mad'st thy country free.
Type both of statesman and true citizen,
Simple, great, good, thou wast, and foremost among men.

An Amusing Scene.

The graduates of Yale College have a queer custom of coming back, after graduation, and presenting a silver cup to the first married graduate who can produce his wife and baby in support of his pretensions to being the leader in the domestic line. The New Haven correspondent of the New York Tribune gives the following account of the presentation by the class of '64 to a class-mate who was the first to win the honors of wedlock and paternity.

If this odd notion is not yet peculiar to Yale, it must be at least, I should think, peculiar to America. It [illegible] has an air of originality that gives it a decided relish. * * *

We slowly pushed up into the upper room, where we found the class of '64 [illegible] about tables ranged along two sides and a [illegible] of the room, while the company [illegible] on settees ranged between these tables [illegible] wall. Then the gallery at the upper end was filled and the [illegible] were then brought [illegible] the [illegible], and when all [illegible] it would have been hard to find [illegible] or [illegible] audience than [illegible] almost [illegible] of young men and [illegible], with younger girls and [illegible] was a clapping of [illegible] and [illegible] of laughter, and [illegible] as the [illegible] and his [illegible] carrying the baby, and the [illegible] came in and [illegible] to the [illegible] end of the hall. The husband and father, Rev. W. W. Patt[illegible], has reason to be proud of the baby and its mother; it was pretty to see the lady's graceful unaffected way of [illegible] her h[illegible], and [illegible] to watch the [illegible] baby of ten months [illegible] these two or [illegible] if he was in his own nursery. To [illegible] take [illegible] as big as he [illegible] into his little hand, [illegible] it right away to his mouth and then look up and [illegible] unintelligible [illegible] to [illegible] it to him, and then take [illegible] drink and then flourish it in the air to that extent [illegible] it looked every minute as if he were going to throw it over his [illegible]; and then to see the steady way in which he took the three cheers for the baby, and the three [illegible] for the father, and the three for the [illegible], never once winking, but throwing [illegible] in the [illegible] cup at the end of [illegible] and [illegible] ready for the next by taking a long pull at his cup, all this was a [illegible] to behold. If he understood the [illegible] he must [illegible] it very good indeed. He [illegible] as if he [illegible] stood it, and sat straight [illegible] with the gravest face in the world, all excellent jokes and [illegible] Mr. Angel with the [illegible] delicacy sent all of us outsiders home, [illegible] the baby who the class thought, ought by this time, it being then one o'clock, to be in bed. Master Frederick submitted to be carried off with the best grace in the world, and bade us all good night with another flourish of the cup, and the merriest succession of crows that ever a baby gave.

Soldiers' Bounties.—The Washington Chronicle [illegible] the following facts connected with the payment of soldiers' [illegible] by the Federal Government and the number of [illegible] presented:

[illegible], as we learn, there have been presented at the Paymaster General's 495,000, and at the Second Auditor's 160,000. It is estimated that 30,000 [illegible] will be [illegible] at the Paymaster General's, and from 5,000 to 10,000 at the Second Auditor's. This will [illegible] the whole number up to 695,000. Twenty-five per cent. of these claims, and [illegible] third, will be rejected, [illegible] under [illegible] the provisions of the law and the rules gov[illegible] [illegible] 90,000 have [illegible] been paid, or had been at the beginning of August, say 73,000 by the Paymaster General and 17,000 by the Second Auditor; the former having [illegible] paying in January and the [illegible] in June last. Payments are now arriving at the rate of from 20,000 to 25,000 a month, each of the [illegible] paying of from 10,000 to 14,000 a month. This is as fast, probably, as the [illegible] can be [illegible], and at this rate, while the [illegible] in the Second Auditor's office [illegible] the [illegible] may be disposed of in eighteen months; those in the Paymaster [illegible] at least three [illegible] has [illegible] an inquiry into the practicability of devising a more speedy [illegible] of the claims, but no [illegible] plan has been found feasible.

How Mules came into Fashion.—The Louisville Industrial Gazette says:

"Few of the farmers of this country are aware of the debt of gratitude they owe George Washington for the introduction of mules into general use for farm purposes.

Previous to 1783 there were very few, and those of such an inferior order as to prejudice farmers against them as unfit to compete with horses in work upon the road or farm. Consequently there were no jacks and no disposition to increase the stock; but Washington became convinced that the introduction of mules generally among Southern planters would prove to them a great blessing, as they are less liable to disease, and longer lived, and work upon shorter feed, and are much less liable to be injured than horses by careless servants.

As soon as it became known abroad that the illustrious Washington desired to stock his Mount Vernon estate with mules, the King of Spain sent him a jack and two jennies from the royal stables, and Lafayette sent another [illegible] from the island of [illegible]

How an Indiana Wife showed her Husband "how to get a Divorce."—The Indianapolis Journal tells the following:

A gentleman who had filed a bill for divorce, and while it was quietly awaiting the action of the Court, feeling a little lonely, concluded to call upon his wife, from whom he had been sometime separated. Accordingly he dressed himself with great care and presented himself at her house. He was admitted, and found her enjoying the society and caresses of another individual. This [illegible] him," and he made a remark which [illegible] the temper of his wife and her paramour, and together they pitched into him, giving him a tremendous [illegible], interlarding it with statements to the fact that they "would show him how to get divorced," etc. He [illegible] to the police all covered with blood, and disgusted with the divorce business.

Scotchmen and Englishmen Contrasted.—A writer in the Tribune draws a lively contrast between the intellectual peculiarities of the Scotch and English. He says:

In England, religion and philosophy are feeling; in Scotland, everything is argument. If an angel [illegible] in London, he would be asked to [illegible] a few gracious words of celestial good will. In Edinburg he would be called upon to mend [illegible], or reconcile some troublesome contradiction. All the Scotchman's native [illegible] disappears once he gets into argument. None are braver on this ground. The whole race might be [illegible] from Aristotle. A Scotchman's blood seems made up of serum and syllogism. If you prick him there trickles out an argument.

Opposition to Vallandigham.—The Democratic [illegible] of Ohio are dead set against Vallandigham's claims for the United States Senatorship. The Chairman of the Democratic State Central Committee of Butler county, Ohio, writes to the Cincinnati Enquirer a letter, apologizing for the Vallandigham resolutions adopted at the Hamilton jollification, recently. He says that the resolutions were engineered through by Vallandigham, without consulting the committee, and that it was adopted "without reflection," in a moment of enthusiasm, and, we suppose, weakness. Sunset Cox telegraphs to Washington that neither Vallandigham nor Pendleton will get the United States Senatorship. He says that either Judge Thurman or Judge Ranney will surely get the place.

Parmer, President of the Broadway Bank, $20,000; Edwin D. Morgan, ex-Governor, $10,000; Fred. A. Conkling, ex-Congressman, $10,000; George Opdyke, ex-Mayor, $10,000; Marshal O. Roberts, $20,000; W. Morganatic Marriages.

Everybody has heard the term "morganatic marriages," and many people suppose that marriages of this kind are a species of concubinage, in which the kings and princes of Europe are fond of indulging. This is not the case, however. A morganatic marriage is just as binding upon the parties as any other marriage. The term is derived from the German, Morgangabe, which means a dowry. It signifies a matrimonial contract in which one of the parties is greatly superior in rank to the other. If it be the bride who is of inferior rank, she agrees that she and her children shall be entitled neither to the rank nor the estate of her husband, and that the dowry which is settled upon her at the time of the marriage shall be accepted in lieu of all other privileges. If the man be the inferior he gives his assent to similar conditions. In the bridal ceremony the party of superior rank gives the left hand, instead of the right, to the other—whence these marriages are styled "left-handed."

One of the most famous marriages of this class was that of Frederick William the Third of Prussia, to the Countess Augusta, of Harrach, upon whom her husband conferred the rank of Princess of Leignitz—a marriage consummated in 1824, long after the death of the King's most legitimate spouse, the beautiful Queen Louisa. The Princess of Leignitz is still living—a widow since 1840. Another morganatic marriage was that of the late King of Denmark, Frederick the Seventh, who after being divorced from two princes married morganatically a plain dressmaker by the name of Rasmussen, with whom he lived happily till his death. He first encountered her under very singular circumstances. It is the custom at Copenhagen, when a large fire occurred, for one of the princes to attend it, and to take command of the detachment of troops which is always called out to keep order while the firemen endeavor to extinguish the conflagration.

Frederick, then Crown Prince, was once performing his duty, when his eyes caught sight of a dressed wax figure in the window of a dressmaker's shop in the second story of a burning building. In the hurry and excitement of the moment he mistook this lay-figure for a living person endeavoring to escape from the window. Leaping from his horse, he plunged into the building and ascended the staircase. On his way through the rooms, he discovered the owner of the dressmaking establishment, who was bewildered in the smoke, and whom he conducted to a place of safety. This was the woman whom he subsequently married, bestowing upon her the title of Countess Danner, and settling upon her a large dowry. She still survives him.

Among existing members of princely houses who have contracted this kind of marriage may be mentioned Prince Leopold of Saxony, Prince Charles of Bavaria, and Prince Alexander of Wurtemburg. It is a son of the last named—offspring of his morganatic marriage—who, under the name of Prince Teck, lately married Queen Victoria's cousin, the Princess Mary of Cambridge.

A singular instance of a morganatic union is that of Prince Edward of Saxe-Weimar, who is married in this manner to a daughter of the proud Duke of Richmond, while another British nobleman, the Duke of Hamilton, wedded, on terms of perfect equality, a princess of the grand ducal house of Baden, whose rank is certainly as high as that of Prince Edward.

The only modern one, with which we are familiar, of a morganatic marriage in which the bride was the person of superior rank is that of Princess Elizabeth, of Italy, sister-in-law of Victor Emanuel, who was married with left hand in 1846—a year after the death of her first husband, Prince Ferdinand—to the Marquis Rapallo. Victor Emanuel himself is said to have been more than once on the point of contracting a morganatic union with some of his favorites, but has been prevented by the advice of his ministers, who somehow or other deem it better for the interests of the State that he should live in a more reprehensible manner.

A Giant in Missouri.—There is a giant in Missouri whose name is Thurston; he is thirty-seven years old, weighs 230 pounds, and towers to the immense hight of seven feet, seven and a half in [illegible]. During the war he was in the Confederate service, belonging a portion of the time to Parson's division of Price's forces, and it is said to be the identical traditionary individual, who Van Dorn, at the battle of Pea Ridge, ordered to "get down off that stump." He was born and raised not far from Versailles, in Morgan county, but his present residence is in St. Louis county, about eighteen miles from the city.

As an illustration of the ravages of [illegible], it is stated that the present race of Egyptian [illegible] make fuel of the mummies of three thousand years ago, and they do their cooking with the embalmed limbs of the citizens of ancient Thebes; while the button makers of the world convert the bones of the Pharaohs, or of their subjects at least, into ornaments for "cutaway" coats and ladies' sacques.

THE ROYAL BALSAM!

HAS NOW BEEN BEFORE THE PUBLIC FOR A length of time, and wherever used is highly recommended, never failing in a single instance to give permanent relief when timely used; and we have never known a single case of dissatisfaction, but, on the contrary, all who use it [illegible] speak in the highest terms of its magical [illegible]. The astonishing efficacy of the ROYAL BALSAM, in curing the diseases for which it is recommended entitles it to the highest rank among the list of medicines, and no family can be without it after once trying it.

Read the following testimonials from some of the most prominent citizens of Oregon:

MIRACULOUS CURE.

Dr. Henley—Dear Sir: I feel it but a duty to inform you and the public what a miraculous effect your Royal [illegible] had on my wife. She had been affected with a severe [illegible] for several weeks, which had [illegible] a dangerous feature, for which many physicians have been [illegible] without any material benefit, and all the remedies failed to give her any relief. Without relief we got [illegible] for [illegible] worst, [illegible] at [illegible]. The cough appeared to be worse at night, she could get no rest—when Mr. Randell, of this place, advised me to try your Royal Balsam; all other remedies having failed, I concluded to try it, and [illegible] two bottles. Strange to say, by the time I gave her three spoonfuls of the Balsam she got relief, and slept, a thing she had not done for three nights previous. By the time she had taken one bottle she was [illegible]. Its effect was truly miraculous, as the cure was effectual: hence, I have no hesitation in recommending the Royal Balsam to all who are afflicted, and it appears astonishing to me that medicine of such great merit, and I might say magical effect, is not more in use. My [illegible] is, if persons use it once, they [illegible] be without it in the house.
Vancouver, March 1, 1867. H. COCHRAN.

From Wm. Doty.

North Yamhill, July 16, 1867.

Dear Dr. Henley—It is with sincere gratitude I undertake to write to you, what your Royal Balsam has done for me. For the last 12 years I have been afflicted with a severe cough and what also some of the physicians called the Bronchitis, and have spent a fortune to get cured, trying all the physicians and remedies I could get to no purpose. Through the influence of my neighbors (for you have a great name with them here,) I got a bottle of your Royal Balsam, and finding that it relieved me considerable I sent for a half dozen more. And now after one month using it I am perfectly cured. I gained ten pounds within a month and feel quite a different man. I send you this for publication for the benefit of humanity, that [illegible] my experience others in affliction may be relieved as I have been. Yours truly,
WILLIAM DOTY.

From Sophia M. Holman.

Dear Dr. Henley—It is my duty to inform you and the public, what a miraculous effect your Royal Balsam had on my children. Two of them had a very bad cough and cold, I got a bottle of the Royal Balsam, and gave them some at bedtime and some in the morning, and that was all that was needed to cure them. I was astonished at not hearing them cough again, just so it was. I find if you give it in larger doses it will make the children throw up in an instant, and I think, every mother ought to have a bottle of your Royal Balsam in the house, in case a child should get the croup for which it is a sure remedy, as it acts like magic on children. What I have seen and heard from my neighbors about the Royal Balsam I would sooner depend on it than on any prescription from any physician. I have lost two children within the last year of the same disease, had I had at the time some of the Royal Balsam I am confident my dear ones would be alive now. I shall always recommend it to all my friends, for I consider it a blessing and Godsend to mankind.
Yours truly, SOPHIA M. HOLMAN.

From Drs. Bell & Parker.

We have sold a great deal of Medicine since we have been in business, and now have fifteen different kinds of Expectorants for sale. But Dr. Henley's Royal Balsam takes the palm from all. In fact, we sell six bottles of Royal Balsam to one of any other kind—and really it [illegible] of no use to keep any other. During our experience we have never seen any medicine that gives the satisfaction the Royal Balsam does, as is proven by the results daily coming in from the country of old Chronic cases, when nothing else would remove the dreadful cough they had. I find it is good for Bronchitis and Asthma. We acknowledge it is a pleasure to sell medicine that gives such universal satisfaction.
BELL & PARKER,
Druggists, Oregon City.

From W. F. Barber.

Dr. Henley—Dear Sir: I had the Asthma for the last four years, so bad that it came near choking me. I tried all the patent medicines recommended for the cure of Asthma without doing me the least good, till I was told to try some of your Royal Balsam, which on several afflicted with the same disease, has performed wonders. I am using it now for a week and strange to say I have not experienced anything since, and I really believe that I am perfectly cured, anyhow I shall never be without a bottle of the Royal Balsam in the house in case of a similar attack, and I have no hesitation in recommending it to all afflicted with the same disease.
I am Yours truly,
W. F. BARBER.

From J. H. Morril.

Dear Dr. Henley—I think it but justice to you that these few lines should be made known to the public, for there is so much humbug going on in patent medicine and quack nostrums now-a-days that I had lost all faith in everything in the shape of medicine. I was affected with what is called Bronchitis for the last thirty years, I coughed and wheezed for an hour at a time; I tried some of the best physicians in the Atlantic States and on this coast, all to no purpose. I could get no relief, and I really thought there was no relief for me in the world. I was induced to try a bottle of your Royal Balsam and it had a most remarkable effect on me, and before I had used up four bottles, the cough left me and I can talk as loud as anybody; my wife and neighbors don't know what to make of it. My opinion is that if they knew the value of the Royal Balsam there is not a family in the country that would be without it, I think there is not a better medicine in existence for Bronchitis or cough than the Royal Balsam, and I conscientiously recommend to all so afflicted to give it a fair trial.
I remain yours, truly,
J. H. MORRIL.

CARD.

DR. BARLOW J. SMITH'S WATER CURE AND Phrenological Institute, 627 Sacramento Street, San Francisco. This is the only Regular Water Cure in Francisco, where all curable diseases are treated without drugs. Dr. Smith was the first to establish a water cure on this coast, based upon the theory and practice of the New York Hydropathic College.

We have a truly healthful boarding place for men, women and children, and our prices are moderate.

The Phrenological organs plainly indicate the diseases to which any person, male or female, is predisposed.

Put this card in your hat, and when you come to San Francisco, call on Dr. Smith. He will give you consultation and a phrenological examination in regard to health. It will cost you nothing and may save you months and years of ill health and "bad luck."

Dr. Smith gives free lectures to gentlemen every Friday evening, on subjects pertaining to health, at his Phrenological Hall, 627 Sacramento Street.

RENNICK'S SITKA LINIMENT!

THE MOST REMARKABLE DISCOVERY EVER MADE!

Will Cure All Pains in a Few Minutes!

Read the Certificates:

SPRAINED WRIST CURED.

Portland, August 10, 1867.

I was at Mr. Wagner's store on Saturday, August 10th, and seeing the magic effect of J. G. RENNICK'S SITKA LINIMENT, in his case, concluded to try it on my wrist which has been sprained for some time. I found relief inside of FIVE MINUTES from its application, and it is now perfectly well. My wrist was so swelled I could not shut my fingers. I believe it will cure any pain in a short time. I will give any further particulars to whoever calls on me.
VINCENT McCULLOUGH,
Corner of Fifth and College streets.

Tumor Removed!

Portland, August 10th, 1867.

I HAVE USED RENNICK'S SITKA LINIMENT for pain and swelling of the gum and cheek. I had a large tumor forming on the gum which arose from killing the nerve in my tooth and caused me a dreadful pain which prevented me from sleep for several nights. I applied the Liniment, and to my surprise, it removed the lump and eased the pain so that it is now as well as the other cheek. My cheek was fearfully swollen. This was done in the presence of two witnesses.
I. MITCHELL.

Portland, August 12th, 1867.

For five years I have suffered with a pain or weakness in my back, which at times was dreadful. I often thought I could not bear such torment. But I got a bottle of RENNICK'S SITKA LINIMENT, and with one rub it perfectly cured me. I can recommend it to any lady suffering from pains in any way, for I am convinced it will at once remove them.
DORE COHN,
Corner of Fourth and Taylor streets.

Any person who does not believe this can call, and I will convince them.

Rheumatism Cured!

State of Oregon, County of Multnomah—ss.

I JEREMIAH BROCK, BEING DULY SWORN, SAY that I am fifty-three years of age, that I reside in Yamhill County, State of Oregon. I came to Portland on business, on horseback, from my home this morning. When I left home I could scarcely walk or stand on my feet, from Rheumatism, which has afflicted me for the last eight years. I was standing in Wilson's stable, on First street, in this city, when I heard Mr. Rennick's offer to bet that he would take out the Rheumatism in any case in twenty minutes. Rennick offered to bet $100 that he could do it. I went to Mr. Rennick's house and he applied the Liniment to my leg, and in twenty minutes my leg felt sound and limber, and as well as ever.
JEREMIAH BROCK.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this August 20th, 1867.

Notary Public for Multnomah County, Oregon.

NEW REMEDIES, NEW REMEDIES

Dr. Gibbon's Dispensary,

616 KEARNEY STREET, NEAR COMMERCIAL, San Francisco. Established in 1854, for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases, such as Gonorrhea, Gleet, Stricture, Syphilis in all its forms, Seminal Weakness, Impotency, etc. Skin Diseases (of years standing) and Ulcerated Legs [illegible] treated.

Horrible Diseases.

How many thousands of persons, both male and female, are there who are dragging out a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgences, or from virus absorbed into the system! Look at their pallid, [illegible] ted and disfigured faces and their broken down constitutions, disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life. In this horrid situation thousands suffer until death closes the scene. Let parents, guardians, friends, attend to those who are suffering with any of these horrible life-destroying maladies, [illegible] that they are cured for and cured before it be too late. Send them immediately to Doctor Gibbon, a physician who has [illegible] private di[illegible] his special study for years, and who is certain to cure the most inveterate cases without mercury or any injurious drugs. It is important to those who are afflicted, or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends, to be careful of the many pretended doctors who infest all cities, publishing their skill in curing all diseases in a few days, imposing upon the public by using the names of [illegible] physicians from Europe and [illegible] strict inquiry, or you may fall into the hands of those charlatans.

Seminal Weakness.

[illegible] the consequence of self-abuse. This solitary vice, or depraved sexual indulgence, is practised by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent, producing, with unerring certainty, the following train of morbid symptoms, unless combatted by scientific medical measures, viz: Sallow countenance, dark spots under the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears, noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots, uneasiness about the loins, weakness of the limbs, confused vision, blunted intellect, loss of confidence, diffidence in approaching strangers, a dislike to form new acquaintances, a disposition to shun society, loss of memory, [illegible] flushes, pimples and various eruptions about the face, furred tongue, fetid breath, coughs, consumption, night sweats, monomania and frequently insanity. If relief be not obtained, should apply immediately, either in person or by letter, and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease, which cannot fail of effecting a quick and radical cure. Dr. G. will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of this complaint by either of the San Francisco quacks.

MARRIED MEN,

Or those who contemplate marriage, who are suffering under any of these fearful maladies, should not forget the sacred responsibility resting upon them nor delay to obtain immediate relief.

TO THE LADIES.

The various complicated and distressing diseases incident to females, treated with eminent success. Such as Suppressions, Irregularities, Whites, Falling of the Womb, Tumors, all Urinary Diseases, Nervous Debility, Painful or Difficult Menstruation, Barrenness, etc., will be speedily cured, without poisonous drugs, injuries or unpalatable medicines of any kind. Have no delicacy in calling, no difference what your troubles may be. The afflicted are cordially invited to call and satisfy themselves.

Persons calling at Dr. Gibbon's office or sending for packages of medicines, may rely upon his assurances of confidential secrecy with implicit faith, and expect no more than to be charged with a fair, and mutually satisfactory remuneration for services rendered, scrutinizing the circumstances and difficulties of cases, rather than a too prevalent and selfish practice of extortion among quacks and pretenders.

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible, and will give to each patient a written instrument, binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure, or make no charge.

CURED AT HOME.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME, by addressing a letter to Dr. Gibbon, stating case, symptoms, length of time the disease has continued, and have medicines promptly forwarded, free from damage and curiosity, to any part of the country, with full and plain directions for use, for Ten Dollars, sent in registered letter or through Wells, Fargo & Co.

Address DR. J. F. GIBBON, 616 Kearney street, corner Commercial, San Francisco. Post Office Box 952.

Consultations FREE.

Correspondents will please inform DR. GIBBON that they read his advertisement in the Daily Oregonian
